Britain's Best Butcher Shop 2012

Frank Parker Butchers in Nuneaton is a very impressive modern shop that has been serving the local community and their restaurants with a range of fine foods and quality meats for over 100 years.

They pride themselves on being a family run business, established in 1896. Currently they have three generations of the Parker Family working in the shop along side a dedicated team of experienced and skilled staff. In total a team of 28 work in the shop.

The modern shop makes them stand out in today's highly competitive marketplace, bringing together modern values and cuts to traditional butchery. They rely on their reputation to build business – a reputation based on the quality and range of products they supply. This reputation brings customers from close and far to enjoy their quality meats.

Built in 1829, 33 Abbey Green comprised a Butchers Shop, Slaughterhouse, Stables and Living accommodation. The property was bought by William Parker in 1896 who ran it with his wife until his death in 1930.

His son Frank, born 1897, then took over ownership of the shop and ran it with his wife, Nellie, and their staff until his death in 1952.

Nellie continued running the shop with their daughter Joan and son Frank. This carried on until Frank was 21 and then he took over the business.

With the latest refurbishment Frank Parker Butchers has certainly come into the 21st century.

The business has continued to thrive and is still run today by Frank, together with his two sons, John and Tim, three of his grandchildren, plus an excellent loyal group of staff.

The clean lines and the contemporary colour scheme has now given the shop a whole new lease of life, which will hopefully carry this wonderful business on through many more generations to come.
